RESIDE in Reidsville

Why we live here

Reidsville has become known as "North Carolina's Football Town" due to the unprecedented winning streak of our local high school football team, who has won a total of 22 state championships. We apply that same game winning strategy towards growing our community.

In Reidsville, we are a team. A "Community of Champions" made up of residents, community leaders and businesses working towards a common goal; to make Reidsville the best city we can.

Our passion for football transfers over into our passion for our people. To provide a great place to raise a family, start a business, or live out life in a simpler place, at a slower pace, while still fulfilling your dreams.

Some of us have lived here our entire lives, some of us are brand new to the community, but we are all a part of Reidsville!

Art & Culture

Art and music are alive and thriving with a theatre guild, two concert venues, the RDC group that helps beautify downtown, an art tour and a growing local music scene.

Central Location

Reidsville is a great place to live that's convenient to several popular destinations. You can enjoy the small town life during the week with the opportunity to take a weekend escape to the beach or the mountains in less than a four-hour drive.
